Vice Presidency Supplies and Shared Services
Carlos Enrique Londoño Amariles

Industrial Engineer, Master´s in Government and Public Policies from Universidad Eafit, with specializations in Management and Direction, Financial Structures and Management and Financial Systems (Escuela de Administración de Empresas, Barcelona). He was serving as Administrative and Financial Assistant Manager of the Liquor and Alcohol Factory of Antioquia -FLA, and previously he had been Chief Executive Officer of the Housing and Infrastructure Company of Antioquia- VIVA, Budget Director of the Municipality of Medellín, Financial Director of Projects of the Ministry of Education of Medellín and Financial and Administrative Vice-President of Emtelco, among other positions.