

Panama City, March 26, 2015

Esteban Barrientos Moreno is the new General Manager of ENSA, a subsidiary of EPM Group in Panama

- The executive will assume his position next April 20
- He is back to EPM Group after being EPM Gas Manager
- ENSA is the second electricity distributor in Panama

This Thursday, March 26, ENSA's Board of Directors appointed Esteban Barrientos Moreno as General Manager of EPM Group's subsidiary in Panama. With the announcement of its decision, the maximum directorial body highlighted the impeccable professional background and leadership qualifications of Mr. Barrientos Moreno, who will assume the position next April 20.

Upon learning about his designation, Mr. Barrientos Moreno thanked the trust deposited in him by the Board of Directors and indicated that he "will continue working with the Panamanian government to create new development opportunities for the country that help building sustainable and competitive territories in pro of the community's well-being".

The new General Manager of ENSA is a lawyer from Universidad de Medellín, a specialist in Management of Universidad Ceipa and has an MBA with emphasis on marketing and sales of Escuela de Administración de Empresas de Barcelona, España.

Along his professional life he has worked as Executive Vice President of Invercolsa, Gas Business Unit Manager of EPM, Regional Manager of Cellstar, National Director of Personalized Attention, Sales and Customer Service of Colombiamóvil (Tigo), and National Head of Labor Relations of Postobon, among other important positions.

He has been part of the boards of directors of Prograsur, Metrogas, Gases de la Guajira, Extrucol, Metrex, Electrificadora de Caldas, Electrificadora de Quindío, Transoriente, and Aguas de Urabá.

Mr. Barrientos Moreno added that he "undertakes this new professional challenge with all the energy to keep on working for the quality of life of the people served by ENSA and to strengthen the company as an engine for job creation, sustainability and innovation in the region".

ENSA

Elektra Noreste S. A. (ENSA) is the second electricity distributor of Panama serving more than 1,500,000 persons.

Its service portfolio includes distribution and trading of electric energy with 29,200 square kilometers of geographic coverage in the Panama, Colon and Darien provinces, Guna Yala Comarca and the Pacific Islands.

Its operations started in 1998 and it is part of the Colombia-based EPM Group since March of 2011. Its shareholders are EPM Group with 51%, the Panama State with 48.3% and former workers of the company with 0.7%.