

Relevant Information

EPM's team of experts, its contractors and specialized advisors, are focused on normalizing the flow of the Cauca River downstream of the project; once this goal is achieved, they will proceed to study in detail the geological condition that caused the obstruction in the diversion tunnel and its solution, which will allow to determine the effect on the project schedule.

EPM has contracted an insurance policy that covers material damages and loss of revenue.

