

Relevant Information

Medellín, August 20, 2020

In response to information published in the media, in relation to a report by the rating agency Moody's, EPM clarifies:

The risk rating agency Moody's on August 13 issued a report in relation to EPM, as an issuer in the international capital market, in which, after analyzing recent events, in particular the process against the contractors of the Ituango Hydroelectric Project and the resignation of 8 members of the Board of Directors, informs that to date it maintains EPM's rating at investment grade level, Baa3 with a negative outlook.